GPS coordinates: Latitude 37.420167 | Longitude -5.89305

The Seville Airport (IATA: SVQ, ICAO: LEZL) or the San Pablo Airport is located in the north-east of Seville, nearly ten kilometers from the city center.

Getting from the Airport into the center of Seville is easy and quick. If you catch a Public Taxi the journey will take you around 15 mins and costs between €15 and €22 depending on which time of day you travel. The taxi rank is just outside the terminal building.

To go from the city center (Plaza de Armas) to the Seville airport, there is an urban transport line (Line EA: Special Airport) that connect both points, with stops, including the AVE train station. The journey takes 30 minutes. The one-way ticket costs €4, and you can buy the ticket on board the bus. The opening hours is as follows: To Seville: from 5:20 to 1:15. To the Airport: from 4:30 to 00:30. The service runs 365 days a year.

The journey from the Seville Airport to Sandfire MATSA will take around two hours. The most recommended option to arrive to MATSA is to hire a car in the airport upon your arrival. Then, follow the GPS coordinates provided.

Faro airport (Portugal)

8001-701 Faro, Portugal

Coordinates GPS: Latitud 37.017596 | Longitude -7.96972

The Faro Airport is located just 4 km from the capital of the Algarve, in the middle of a stretch of coastline extending from Cabo de São Vicente to the Doñana Natural Park in Huelva. The airport offers airlines, tour operators and passenger's access to an excellent tourist region with a highly diverse range of natural, historical and cultural attractions.

The best way to get to the airport quickly is the public taxi service. There are taxis all day and night throughout the city, which can be taken from taxi ranks, or hailed in the street or you can call them by phone.. They take up to 4 passengers. There is an extra charge for baggage over 55x35x20. Highway tolls (for example from Via do Infante) are always added to the final amount payable by the passenger.

Along with the taxis, travellers can take the urban bus service. The lines 14 and 16 connect the Faro city center to the airport between 05:00 and 23:00.

The distance from the Faro Airport to Sandfire MATSA is around 200kms so it will take you around 2.5-3 hours to arrive. The most recommended option to arrive to MATSA is to hire a car in the airport upon your arrival. Then, follow the GPS coordinates provided.
